4.7 and made available in electronic form on a remote access basis to the public by the 4.8 government entity, inspection includes remote access to the data by the public and the 4.9 ability to print copies of or download the data on the public's own computer equipment.
4.10 Nothing in this section prohibits a government entity from charging a reasonable fee for 4.11 remote access to data under a specific statutory grant of authority. A government entity

4.13 at the request of the person seeking access.

4.14 (c) The responsible authority or designee shall provide copies of public data upon

4.28 the government entity, the responsible authority may charge a reasonable fee for the 4.29 information in addition to the costs of making and certifying the copies. Any fee charged 4.30 must be clearly demonstrated by the government entity to relate to the actual development

4.33 (e) The responsible authority of a government entity that maintains public 4.34 government data in a computer storage medium shall provide to any person making a 4.35 request under this section a copy of any public data contained in that medium, in electronic 4.36 form, if the government entity can reasonably make the copy or have a copy made.

5.1 This does not require a government entity to provide the data in an electronic format or 5.2 program that is different from the format or program in which the data are maintained
 5.3 by the government entity. The entity may require the requesting person to pay the actual 5.4 cost of providing the copy.

5.5 (f) If the responsible authority or designee determines that the requested data ~~is~~ 5.6 are classified so as to deny the requesting person access, the responsible authority or 5.7 designee shall inform the requesting person of the determination either orally at the time 5.8 of the request, or in writing as soon after that time as possible, and shall cite the specific 5.9 statutory section, temporary classification, or specific provision of federal law on which 5.10 the determination is based. Upon the request of any person denied access to data, the 5.11 responsible authority or designee shall certify in writing that the request has been denied 5.12 and cite the specific statutory section, temporary classification, or specific provision of 5.13 federal law upon which the denial was based.

 5.26 in the possession of the disseminating or receiving entity.

5.27 (b) If data on individuals ~~is~~ are classified as both private and confidential by this 5.28 chapter, or any other statute or federal law, the data ~~is~~ are private.

5.29 (c) To the extent that government data ~~is~~ are disseminated to a government entity
 5.30 by another government entity, the data disseminated shall have the same classification 5.31 ~~in the hands of at~~ at the entity receiving ~~it them~~ as it they had ~~in the hands of at~~ 5.32 providing ~~it them~~ them.

5.33 (d) If a government entity disseminates data to another government entity, a 5.34 classification provided for by law ~~in the hands of at~~ at the entity receiving the data does not 5.35 affect the classification of the data ~~in the hands of at~~ at the entity that disseminates the data.

6.1 (e) To the extent that judicial branch data ~~is~~ are disseminated to government entities
 6.2 by the judicial branch, the data disseminated shall have the same level of accessibility

 6.12 determination about the data challenge within 30 days and either: (1) correct the data

 6.14 incomplete data, including recipients named by the individual; or (2) notify the individual 6.15 that the authority believes the data to be correct. Data in dispute shall be disclosed only if 6.16 the individual's statement of disagreement is included with the disclosed data.

6.17 The determination of the responsible authority may be appealed pursuant to the 6.18 provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act relating to contested cases. A data subject 6.19 cannot appeal a data challenge determination if the responsible authority corrects the 6.20 challenged data. The commissioner shall dismiss the appeal and provide written notice 6.21 to the individual if the individual challenged a policy, procedure, or process used by the 6.22 government entity. Upon receipt of an appeal by an individual, the commissioner shall,
 6.23 before issuing the order and notice of a contested case hearing required by chapter 14,
